To thank you all for all you've done,

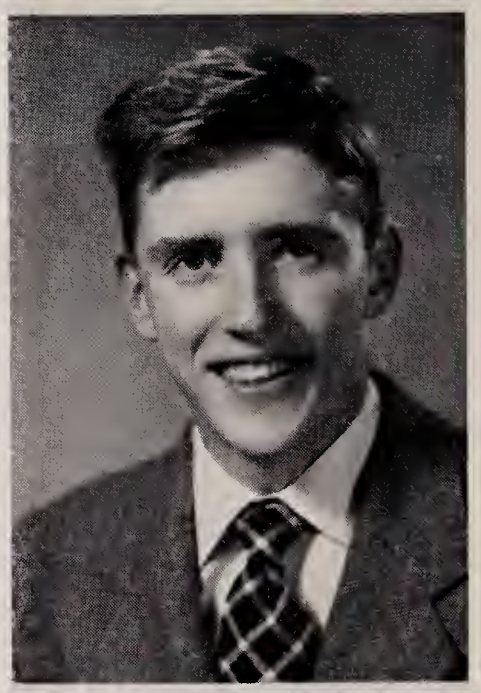
ROBERT F. BROWNELL

August 29, 1932 — Yale

Bob, when a chubby young lad, was bitten by a dramatic bug. He was so greatly affected by it that he has never recovered. In the last four years he has managed to be a big wheel of one sort or another in every major play. He also was chosen president of our group during the ninth year.

School Play (4), Glee Club (4), Discussion Club (3), Class President (1), Student Council (2), Chm. Graduation Comm. ('50), Class Day Comm. ('50).



ROBERT J. BROWNING

July 13, 1932 — U. of Massachusetts

Bob stopped fighting Indians in Lincoln to join us in 1946. During the past four years, he has proved to be a great help in all our activities. When we were decorating for the Junior Prom, he could be found doing anything from hanging decorations from the ceiling to wielding a broom in the final clean-up. That is just the kind of person he is.

Glee Club (4), Graduation Committee ('50).

JANE CAHILL

May 30, 1931 — Business School

Janie is a small "gal" with a large appetite. We often wonder how she manages to stay so little when she eats so much. Is it because typing and taking dictation affords so much exercise, or is it because she cheers so hard at all the games? We do not know the answer, but many of the girls certainly wish they did.

Chanticleer (4), Glee Club (3), Homeroom Committee ('50).

October 27, 1932 U. of Maine

Soon after the latest issue of Chanticleer is out, peals of laughter ring through the school. As Joanie walks up to someone who is holding his sides, she asks innocently, "What are you laughing at?" How could she possibly know that her jokes are the cause of it all? Aside from jokes, she is well informed on the latest fads and records.

Chanticleer (4), School Play (1), Queen's Court ('49), Library Committee (4), Discussion Club (1), Ch. Homeroom Committee ('50).

CAROL C. CHAMBERLIN

February 11, 1933 Katherine Gibbs

"Care", our class beauty, is busy all the time. When she is not typing for someone, she is playing basketball. She also showed her sportsmanship by taking the unglamorous part of Mitzi in "A Date With Judy". On top of that, she still finds time to get her schoolwork done and go on dates. What a girl!

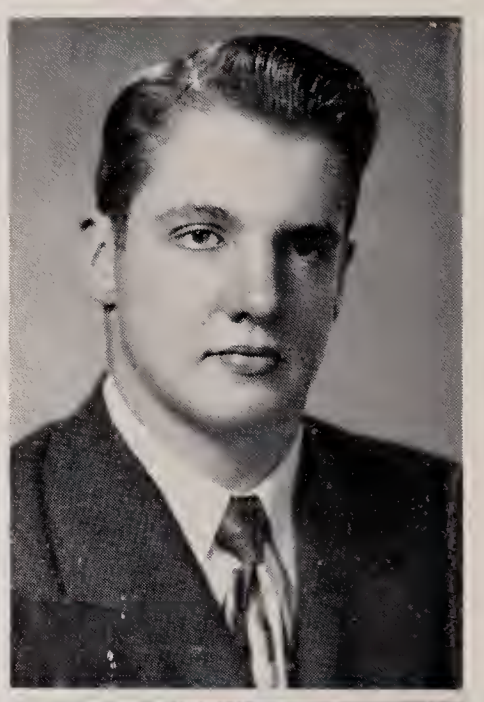
Prom Queen ('49), Discussion Club (1), Chanticleer (1), Glee Club (4), Vice- Pres. (1), Cheerleader (2), School Play (1), Ass. Director School Play (1), Basketball (3).

WINSLOW S. COBB III

July 15, 1931 Weslyan

If you are ever looking for Win, you may find him almost anywhere. In the fall the most probable place is in Coach's office or on the football field. He was co-captain of our undefeated team this year. In winter and spring, he is in more activities than we can name here. He certainly is one of the busiest persons in the class.

Football (4), Co-Captain ('50), Chanticleer (3), Student Council (1), Baseball (1), Discussion Club (1), Class Vice-Pres. (1), Chm. Town to Town Aff. (1), Chm. Prom Comm. ('49), Math Club ('50).



DAVID B. COLPITTS

May 25, 1932 — Dartmouth

"Strike three!", we hear the umpire yell, as Dave pitches another winner. In the fall it is, "A pass from Colpitts sends the end over for the winning touchdown." During the winter it is, "Another basket by Dave Colpitts!" Dave shines not only in sports, but ask anyone about him and she will tell you he is well-liked and very popular all around.

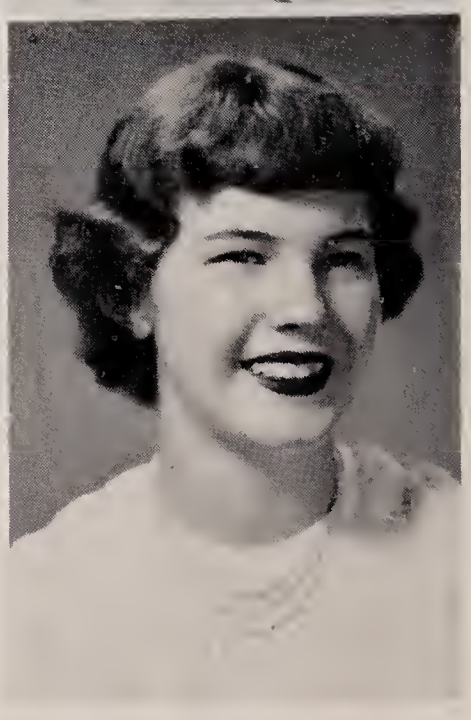
Glee Club (2), Baseball (4), Football (2), Basketball (2), Ch. Outing Committee ('50).

ELIZABETH DAMON

April 26, 1933 — Bryn Mawr

Betty is a Waylandite but she does not let it affect her. Although she is a consistent rooter at all games, the ones at which she seems to yell the loudest are the ones against Wayland. Few people realize how much courage that takes. Bet also is one of the honor roll regulars. Lucky! Weston High needs more like her.

Chanticleer (1), School Play (2), Basketball Manager ('49), Field Hockey Manager ('50), Discussion Club (2), Glee Club (3).



MEREDETH FOWLER

March 24, 1933 — Carnegie Tech

Merry is one of the newest members of our clan, but she was never over-awed by her new mates. To show her courage, she took on the job of Treasurer last year as soon as she arrived and did such a good job that she was unanimously re-elected this year. Anyone who does not want to face an un-merry Merry has learned to have all dues paid at the proper time.

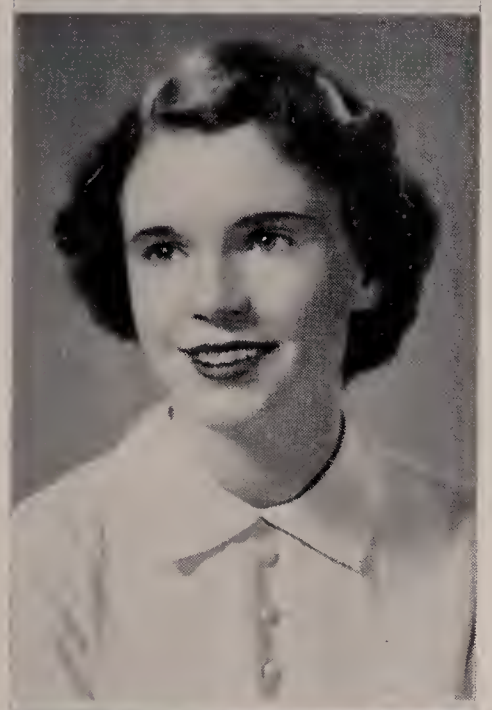
Class Treasurer (2), School Play (1), Glee Club (1), Discussion Club (1), Queen's Court ('49).

MARGOT FRYE

November 12. Secretarial Work

Do you need something typed? Just give it to "Maggots" and you will get it back neat and letter-perfect. This winter Charlie "Red" Barrett, Brave's pitcher, was seen at the school, and guess who he was there to see—none other than Margot!

Chanticleer (1). Typing Honors (1), Homeroom Committee ('50).

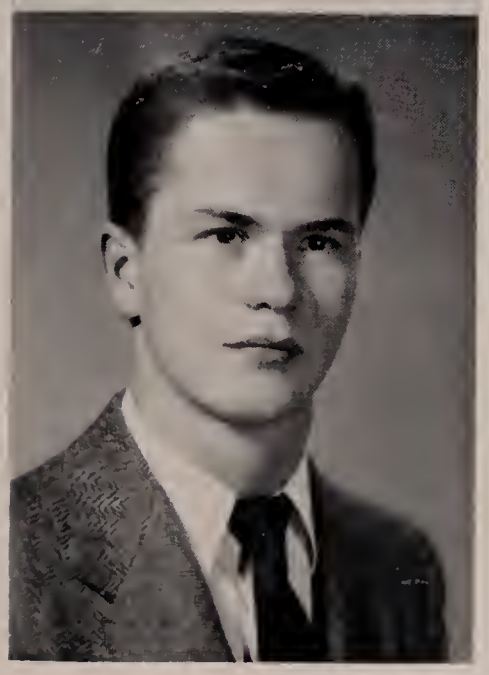


BARBARA GOULSON

July 10, 1932 Interior Decorating

Barbara is one of the petite members of our class. She is Editor-in-Chief of Chanticleer and the importance of the job is in no way comparable to her size. At any rate, Chanticleer has continued to improve since she took over. Aside from editing the school magazine, she plays field hockey and does her homework successfully. Does she ever sleep?

Chanticleer (2), Discussion Club (2), School Play (2), Glee Club (3), Field Hockey (2).



PETER B. GREEN

January 28, 1932 Georgetown

Since he is Business Manager, Pete is the jovial character who has to make sure this yearbook is paid for. Although this is about the most unpopular job that could be found, he takes it in his stride. Undoubtedly he enjoys playing football more. Aside from being a star player, Pete had the honor of being co-captain of the team in his Junior year.

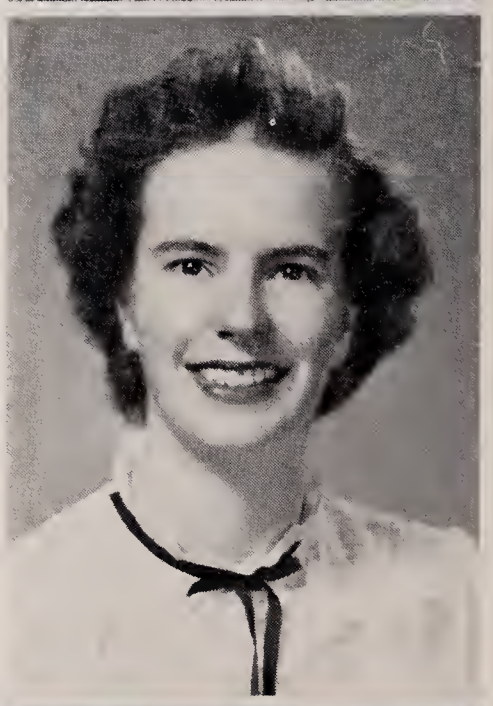
Student Council (1), Glee Club (4), President (1), Basketball (2), Football (3), Co-Captain ('49), Business Manager Yearbook ('50), Discussion Club (2), Harvard Book ('49).

PATRICIA J. HALLQUIST

September 29, 1932 Stockbridge Schl. of Ag.

"Whoa!" Whenever there is a discussion about horses, Pat is there to lead it. It seems that she would rate a horse above a man. Maybe that is because a horse is more faithful. Horses are not Pat's only love, as she goes in for field hockey and basketball too.

Basketball (3), Chanticleer (2), Glee Club (4), Discussion Club (1), Field Hockey (4), Math Club ('50).



JANET P. HAYNES

October 10, 1932 Boston University

Janet seems the quiet type in school, but outside, what a difference! She is an avid rooter at football, basketball, and baseball games, as well as being a member of the girls' field hockey and basketball teams. If that does not prove that she is not the quiet type, this will. She wants to work in one of the noisiest places that can be found—an airport, no less!

Chanticleer (1), Glee Club (4), Field Hockey (3), Basketball (3), Capt. ('50).

GLORIA A. HEANEY

May 1, 1931 Hood College

"Glo" is one of the best sports in Weston High. She will do anything to help and she is always ready to cheer you up She also seems to be the originator of many of the sayings around here, such as "agony", or "forty lashes". Even some of the teachers have been heard to mutter "agony" at trying moments. My, such influence, "Glo"!

Chanticleer (1), School Play (2), Field Hockey (4), Glee Club (3), Discussion Club (2).

JOAN HODGSON

November 26, 1931 — Child Nurse

Did someone say poodles? Why of course, none other than "Poodles" Hodgson. Joanie certainly has done her best to train us in the care and training of those four-legged creatures. That could be a dull subject, but it is not with Joan as teacher. All she has to do is just flash a smile and we realize that there is a lot more to her than just the love of dogs.

Chantieleer (1), Discussion Club (1), Prop. Manager School Play (1), Ch. Outing Committee ('50).

MIRIAM W. HUTCHINSON

May 5, 1932 — Stephens Jr. College

Our budding career girl—that's Mimi! Her abilities as organizer and leader have served the class in good stead and should be useful to her in later life. With a thumb in every pudding and excelling as an actress and cheerleader, Mimi has led a very busy school life. She's off to Stephens now and all set to conquer the radio world—We'd suggest television!

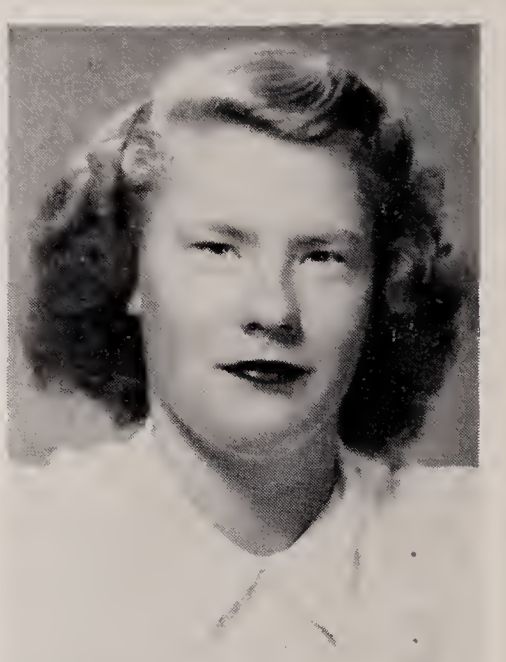
Glee Club (4), Sec.-Treas. ('50), Class Secretary ('49), ('50), Cheerleader (3), Captain ('50), School Play (3), Discussion Club (1).

CHARLES S. KUBIK

July 12, 1932 — M. I. T.

Charlie is about the most mysterious person in the class, as we do not know much about his out-of-school life. In school, he is very ingenious. However, we do not understand how he gets such good marks, when his papers are covered with his latest inventions. We can not pass over this opportunity to thank him for building the wonderful well for our Junior Prom.

Mathematics Club (1), Ch. Class Day Committee ('50).



BARBARA LEACH

August 5, 1932 — Harcum Jr. College

Now here is a unique person, the only red-head in the class. Her carrot-top does not bother Barb too much. but do not say "freckles" to her. She will either blow up or start counting them for you. If you do not get her involved in counting, Barb is really a very helpful person to have around, as she will run errands or help in any way needed.

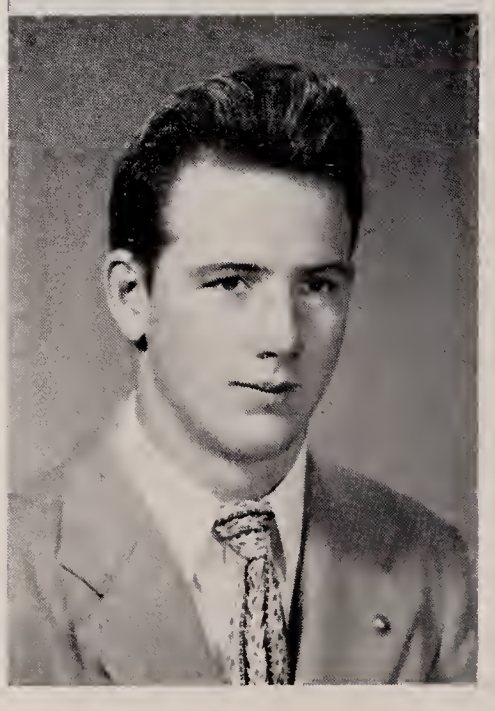
Glee Club (1), Library Comm. (1), Discussion Club (1). Homeroom Committee ('50).

RUTH G. LINDER

July 20, 1931 — Duke

Ruthie is the fashion plate of the class. Not only does she "wow" us with her beautiful clothes, but she was the lucky "gal" who went to Europe last summer. Ever since September, we have been hearing many interesting things about the English, the French, and the Dutch.

Discussion Club (2).

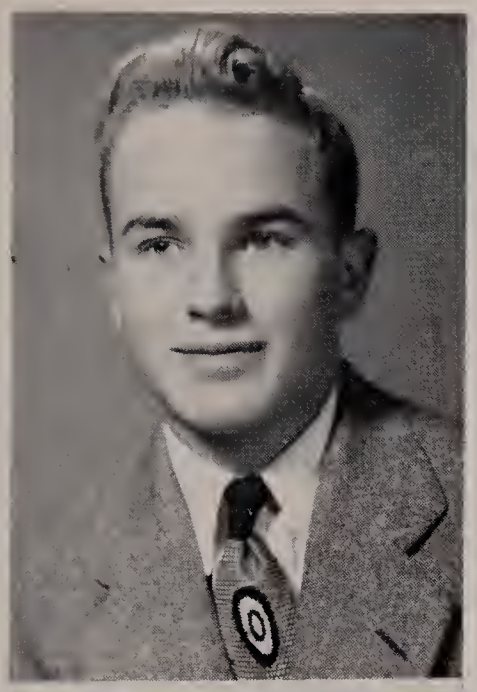


MYLON A. LYONS

April 12, 1932 — Work

"Sid" is one of our "three letter" boys. You just can not keep him away from sports. When he is not at practice or a game, you can usually find him with "the boys". Mylon is extremely good-natured and has been an asset to the elass, since he is always ready and willing to help with anything.

Glee Club (1), Football (4), Basketball (4), Co-Capt. ('50), Bascball (4).



RICHARD H. MAILEY

December 9, 1931 — Colby

Pete is the best looking boy in the class. It seems that his looks are not a source of worry to him because his many activities include playing guard or tackle on the football team. He is also a baseball enthusiast. He was one of the people who was mainly responsible for the wonderful pep rally before the Wayland football game.

Student Council (2), Glee Club (2), Vice-Pres. ('50), Discussion Club (1), Football (3), Baseball (3).

October 10, 1932 — Northeastern

Now here is one of the luckiest people in the class. Until we moved into the new school, Charlie had only to roll out of bed, across the street, and into the school. He is the class comedian and his portrayals of Pasquale and Luigi, as well as his many jokes, have given us many laughs. His parts in the school plays have also kept the audiences happy.

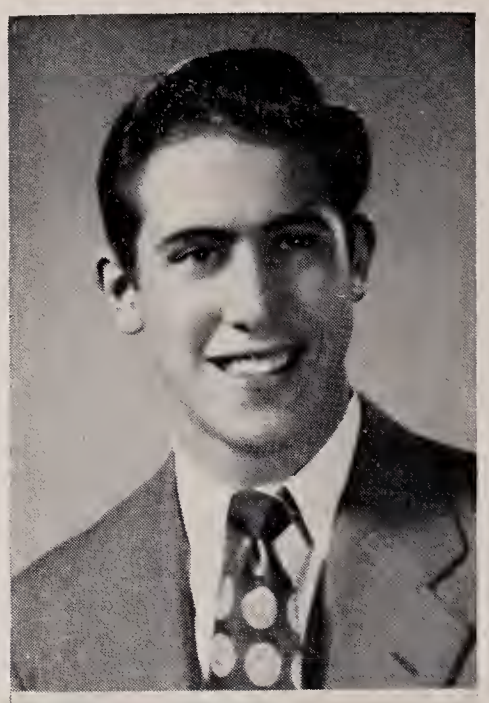
Football Manager (1), School Play (3), Discussion Club (2), Class Vice-Pres. ('49), ('50), Glee Club (3), Basketball Manager (4).

RICHARD R. McCLURE

May 26, 1931 — Mass. School of Art

"How do you like my latest?" Those words probably come from Dick as he asks about his most recent piece of art. We have long known that whenever a poster, picture, or sign is needed in a hurry, all we have to do is call Dick and our troubles will be over. Strangely, his most interesting works are the "doodles" he does in class.

Chanticleer (2), Glee Club (1), Discussion Club (1), Football (3).

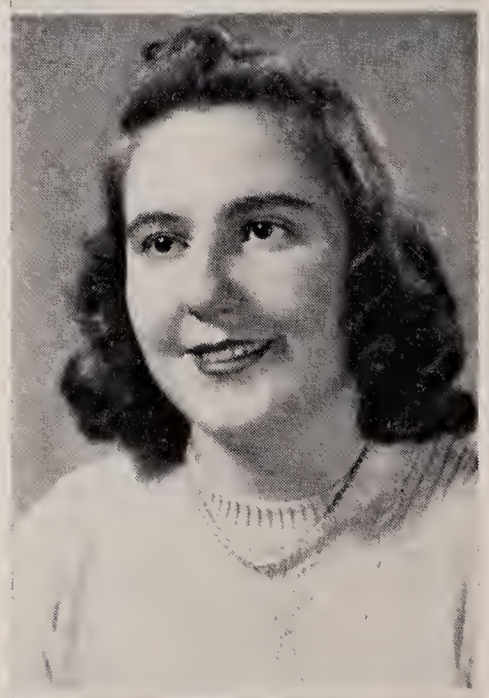


JOHN W. MELONE

April 26, 1932 — Brown

Being class president seems to be a habit with Johnny, as he has filled the position for three years. This year he is also co-captain of the basketball team, and one of our three "three letter" men. On top of that, he takes a leading part in practically all the extra-curricular activities.

Student Council (3), Vice-Pres. ('48), Pres. ('49), Glee Club (3), Football (3), Basketball (4), Co-Capt. ('50), Baseball (2), Class Vice-Pres. ('47), Class Pres. ('48, '49, '50), Math Club ('50).

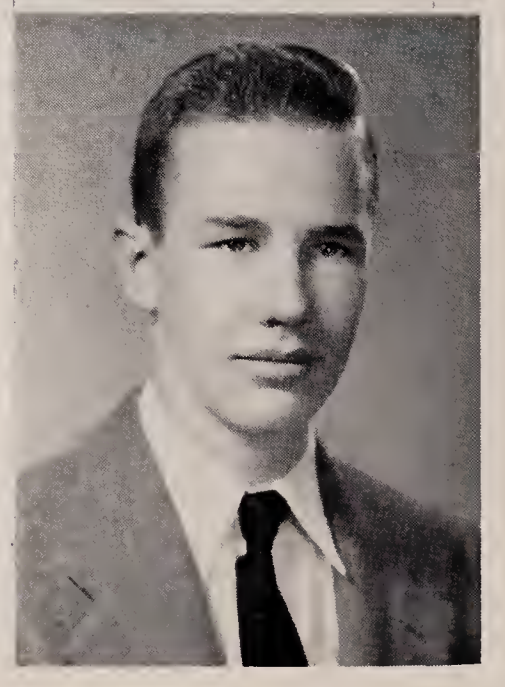


ADA B. MORREALE

January 2, 1931 — Work

"Be quiet, Richard!" rings throughout the shop as Ada diligently works on her M.D. It is surprising to see her in the shop as she really seems to be interested in the domestic side of life. If you want to know anything about housekeeping, just ask Ada and she will willingly give you a very helpful answer.

Glee Club (2).



CHARLES W. NEWELL

November 22, 1931 — Boston University

Bill got tired of fighting Indians in Lincoln so he decided to try Weston High. Fortunately for us he liked it, for he has become a valued member of our class. The success of our dances would not have been so great if we had not had Bill to do the dirty work in decorating.

Student Council ('50), Glee Club (3), Discussion Club (2), Baseball (3).

BETSY J. NICHOLS

August 14, 1932 — Sweet Briar

Bet is about the most exacting person in the class. This is shown in her art work and in the fact that she was chosen Art Editor of the "Log". A description of Jane Eyre fits her very well. "Shy, demure, and helpful." She is the shortest girl in the class, but as they say, "Little bundles contain big things."

Chanticleer (1), School Play Ass. Dir. ('49), Stage Man. ('50), Glee Club (3), Discussion Club (2), Field Hockey (4).

LURENA A. OGILVIE

August 15, 1932 — Work?

That Lurena is going to make a very efficient secretary and/or wife for someone is foretold by her good marks in all her subjects and her outstanding work in the Commercial and Home Economics departments. Her constant good marks and her name on the honor roll are a good example for the rest of the high school to follow.

Chanticleer (1), Glee Club (1), Discussion Club (2).

AUDREY L. READER

July 9, 1932 — Fisher

"Where is Jane?" If Audrey isn't with Jane Turner, she is looking for her. "And" is one of the accomplished typists in the class who have spent a lot of time on this "Log". She is also one of our most competent rooters at all types of varsity games.

Hockey (1), Assistant Director Play ('50), Activities Committee ('50), Glee Club. (4).

ALICE A. RINEHART

April 10, 1932 U. of Miami

"Blacky" is our hard-working "Log" Editor-in-Chief. She seems to enjoy big jobs because last year she was chairman of the decorating committee for the Prom. Al earned the nickname "Blacky" while playing field hockey. She bumped into a team-mate and had a beautiful "shiner" for a week.

Field Hockey (4), Man. ('49), Capt. ('50). Glee Club (4), Queen's Court ('49), Chanticleer (1), School Play Ass. Dir (1), Basketball (4), Discussion Club, (1). D.A.R. ('50), Class Sec. (1), Editor-in-Chief Yearbook ('50).

PAMELA ROBINSON

June 9, 1932 Lasell Jr. College

"Darn it, I did it again!" we hear Pam mutter as her violin emits a squeak. Pam is our unofficial class violinist. She has daringly faced the whole high school at assemblies, knowing that they are very apt to start laughing the minute she starts playing. Pam is not lost in her music though, as is shown by the wonderful times we have with her in classes.

Chanticleer (3), Glee Club (4), Discussion Club (2). Field Hockey, (1), School Play Publicity ('50).

MARY E. TAYLOR

December 4, 1932 Swarthmore

"There go the most beautiful horn rimmed glasses in the school!" To some people that means a bookworm, but to us "Westonians" it means "Tay". She gets wonderful marks but she doesn't let it interfere with her sports and out-of-school life. Her happy smile and lively remarks keep us all cheery.

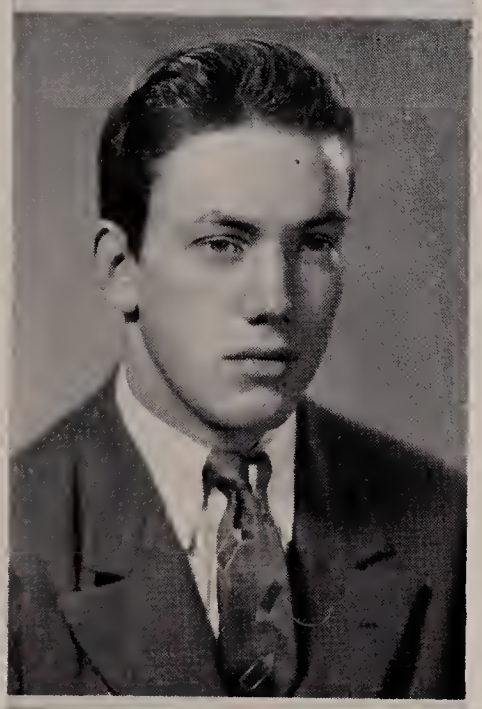
Hockey (3), Student Council (1), Discussion Club (2). Pres. ('50).

JANE E. TURNER

November 30. Nurse

"Another goal by Turner!" In the fall we see Jane running up and down the hockey field and accounting for many of the Weston goals. In the winter she plays basketball and make a great many baskets. What an ambitious "gal!"

Field Hockey (4), Basketball (2), Glee Club (4), Discussion Club (2).



JOSEPH F. TEBO

August 30, 1931 Work

Whenever you need a ride, Joe is the one to ask. He usually has a car of some type that is usuable. His greatest interest seems to be stock-car racing although he does very well in school athletics as is shown by his four years in both football and baseball. To add to that record, he was co-captain of the football team this year.

School Play Electrician (1), Football (4), Co-Capt. ('50), Baseball (4).

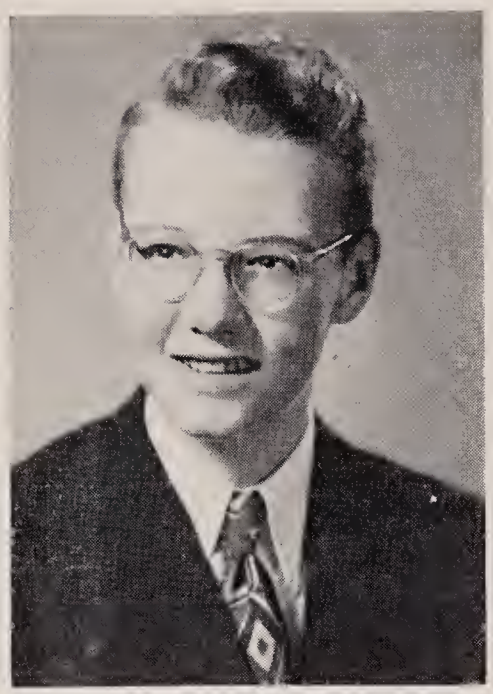
February 4, 1932 Deaconess Hospital

If you do not like to have your picture taken, keep away from Dot. She always has her trusty camera with her and some of the pictures she has taken have been amusing! She does not warn you before she takes them so it is wise for everyone to check up on her latest "takes", just in case.

School Play Ass. Dir. ('50), Glee Club (1), Discussion Club (1), Field Hockey (3), Basketball (3).



DONALD UPHAM

December 17, 1932 — Northeastern

Don is another camera fiend, but he is not so wild as Dot. As Photographic Editor of the "Log" it is his duty to get candids as well as to make sure the class pictures are taken. Therefore, he takes only usable pictures. If Don and Dot got together sometime in the future, they would have an amusing picture history of our senior year.

THE CLASS HISTORY

IN THE FALL OF 1938, a handful of quaking neophytes gathered on a deserted dock to await their maiden voyage on the good ship "Weston." When the boat arrived, they streamed aboard and affixed their scrawling signatures to the ships' record: Joan Carter, Carol Chamberlin, David Colpitts, Margot Frye, Miriam Hutchinson, Barbara Leach, Ruth Linder, Charles Martin, John Melone, Lurena Olgilvie, Pamela Robinson, and Donald Upham. The little craft pulled away and before long the fledgling crew had settled into their chores of readin', writin', and mendin' sails. Under a puffy breeze, progress was slow for awhile and the only thing that can be safely said of the little group at the end of the first year is that they were a year older. At the next port six first class seamen were shipped aboard; Janet Haynes, Ada Morreale, Alice Rinehart, Mylon Lyons, Joseph Tebo, and Jane Turner.

This was the real thing. The ship heeled sharply under a fresh wind and all sails were set for speed. Next, Audrey Reader, Gloria Heaney, and Betsy Nichols joined the crew. The years passed quickly—a kaleidoscope of exciting adventures.

In 1945, disaster struck! The country rallied for war. But we were too full of ourselves and play to notice "outside" events.

During our fifth year at sea, we stopped long enough to shanghai Robert Brownell, Jane Cahill, Barbara Goulson, and Patricia Hallquist. The following year saw the fo'c'sle hands engaged in knitting blanket squares, of all things. Needless to say, the males among us took a dim view of this. About the same time, one of the officers—Staples by name—abandoned her protegés and returned to a quiet life ashore. Richard McClure joined us that year via a mooring hawser and Betty Damon was shipped aboard the next year from the scow "Wayland".

Our eighth year out, Richard Mailey and Dorothy Underhill were spliced into our mately fold. Toward the end of that cruise, the ship called at Provincetown, and it is noted in the log that Mate Johnson entertained the noisey crew with a rather lubberly conga.

Our ninth year saw an explosion in the science lab. Mate Sawyer gave us a too vivid demonstration of the properties of hydrogen which sent the crew scurrying for cover. That same year we received our usual discharge from the "S.S. Lincoln." Included were Robert Browning, Charles Kubik, Charles Newell, and Mary Taylor.

In our tenth year, local disaster struck. Our beautiful ship was revenged by fire and was left a gutted hulk. With heavy hearts we put ashore at Waltham while the "Weston" was docked for repairs. (There is a note in the log relative to the wonderful spirit and industry of our officers during this trying period.)

Mate Carini joined us that year and in vain tried to interest us in the rudiments of biology. (We'll take our frogs alive, thanks.) Winslow Cobb was our only new addition.

Meredeth Fowler and Joan Hodgson joined us the following year just in time for the switch to the rebuilt ship.

In our eleventh year at sea, we were introduced to chemistry. The crew took to this new science like ducks to a desert. Among our more brilliant episodes was the time when Pete and Glo split a tray of boiling alcohol on a bunsen burner. There was a burst of flame. Smoke! Screams! Finally Don Upham came to the rescue with some quick thinking and a fire extinguisher. Needless to say, the offenders were keel-hauled at dawn.

In preparation for our last year at sea, a beautiful new ship was constructed. We manned her in January and from then on it was smooth sailing.

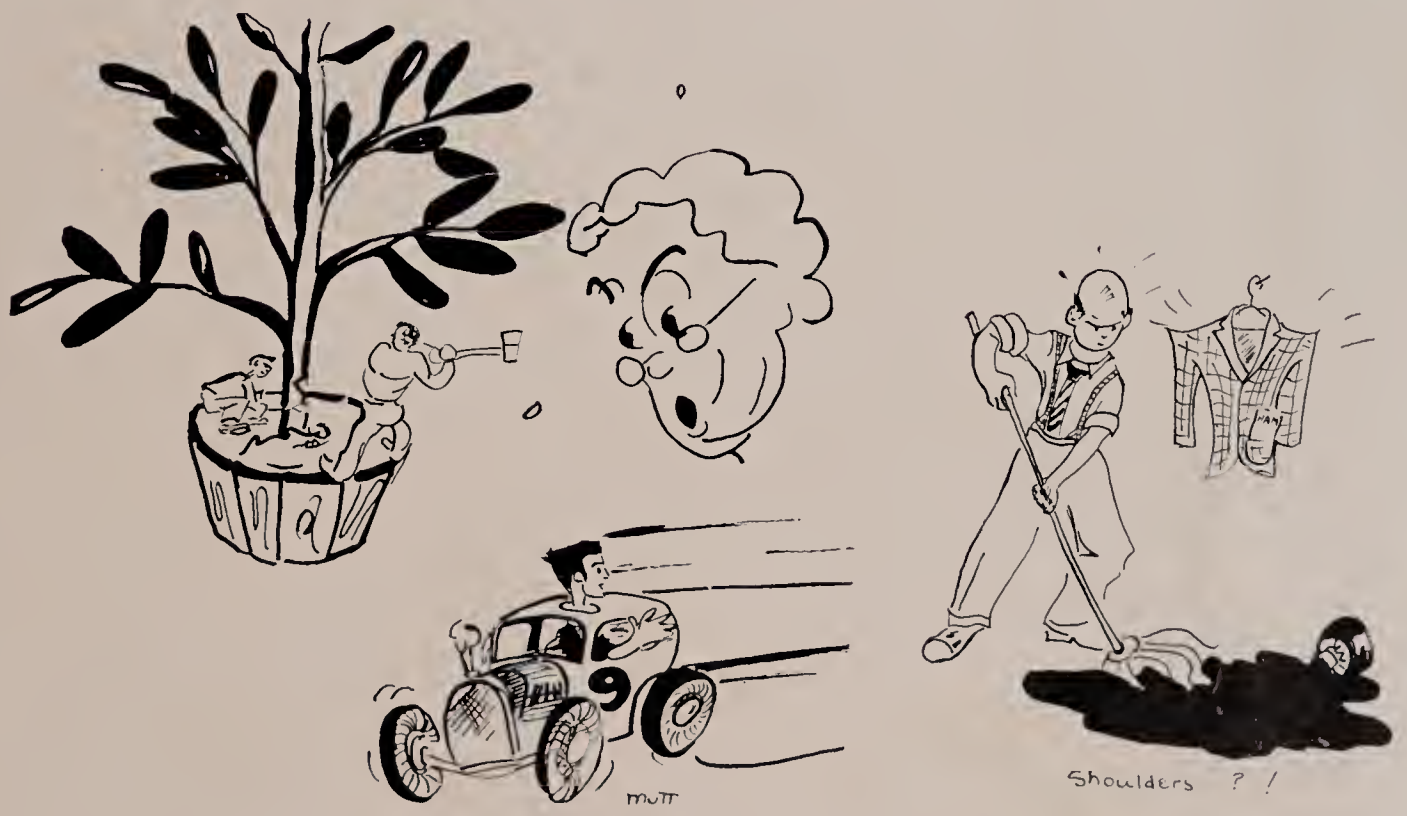
With a clear sky and a following breeze, all sails were set for adventures. We look forward to whatever is ahead—and hope for the best

* * * News Flash June 17, '59* * *

The following conversation between two low-flying seagulls was taken down verbatim and may now be found in the Congressional Record:

"Lord," exclaimed one, "here it is only 1959, and what progress! One would scarcely believe that this hardened group of mariners is the same——.

"Extraordinary isn't it," interrupted the other dryly, "and in only twelve years."



PROPHECY

IN THE YEAR 2000 there was a great shipwreck. Our ship of secondary education went on the rocks dragging the class of '50 down with it. We are now in the depths of the deep green sea. We are conscious of the dark shape of the devil fish directly above us, and we can hear the pattering of the million-legged sea worms. Occasionally we get a glimpse of Mme. Zamprogno's little red herrings sneaking past.

All of a sudden the silence is broken by "Waa Hoo Waa!" Seated on an octopus is a little fat old man with a beard of fire-proof Christmas tree icicles whom we recognize as Triton.

"Stop the music!" Davy Jones enters wearing oilskins and hip boots and sporting a corncob pipe between his two remaining teeth. "I've got business to do. I have 37 new applications for admission to the murky depths."

"What about entrance exams?" asks Triton.

"Well, they all passed the integrity test. As far as character examinations are concerned a few of them are weak on morals, but they all wrote fervent essays on "Why I want to go to Davy Jones' Locker." Now, let's look at the records. Here is Winslow S. Cobb, III. He was a successful architect until he built the bridge between the abstract and the practical which crashed as the result of a mistake in the position of a decimal point.

"Pam Robinson, super policewoman, climaxed her career by capturing the infamous criminal, Public Enemy No. 1.

"Next is Bob Brownell who is currently playing at the Old Howard. They say he has been the recipient of more custard pies than anyone who has been billed there in the last hundred years.

"Janet Haynes established a lunar flying record—around the moon in 80 days.

"Dick McClure, the mighty man of the universe, lifted one ton on his pinky finger. He also trained Mylon Lyons, alias Slobby Sid, for the universe monster-weight championship, only to have him defeated by the Amazon wrestler Two-Ton Turner.

"Speaking of athletes, Dave Colpitts didn't allow a single run in his long Earth League career, thanks to his stupendous cork-screw ball. What a pitch! It whips the air into a maelstrom, and then zing over the plate for a strike.

"Rinehart, typical run-of-the-mill capitalist, swindled Dick Mailey out of his business. All she left him were some ulcers and his sweet smart secretary, Jane Cahill. In the end they made up and formed the Kigmy Corporation. They made a mint selling them to the Cominform.

"Barbara Goulson, the super-hound of the gossip world, dug up the scandal about the latest Fowler divorce. Miss Fowler is now the merry heir to a billion dollars worth of alimony.

"Next, Charles Kubik's doorstep was worn to a frazzle after he invented a better mousetrap. He ended up a frustrated old man from putting his finger into too many traps.

"Speaking of animals, here's Pat Hallquist, the owner of Don Juan, the fastest race horse in the world. And next is Joan Hodgson who developed a new type of puddle-free poodle—stark pink.

"In the entertainment world, two girls hit the big-time. Joan Carter, the comedienne, starred in "Clara, Get Your Blunderbuss." Then there's Margot Frye, the sultry torch singer."

"Boy!" says Triton, "you ought to hear her do, "Baby It's Hot In Here!"

"That's enough! As far as I'm concerned they can tread water for eternity. To stay in the entertainment world, here's Barbara Leach who was the cigarette girl at the Ritz, but unfortunately she had to quit because she almost succumbed to cigarette hangover.

"Well, here's Donald Upham, chief photographer for Vargas, and his favorite model, Audrey Reader."

"Wow!" whistles Triton, "you ought to see her as August on last year's calendar."

"Stop it, Trite! Say, here's a fellow who topped the job at Brink's back in '50—Bill Newell. He got into Fort Knox and got out with 5 million."

"He almost got away with it too," says Triton. "Too bad he had to show off his gold plated shovel. Now if I had all that money, I . . ."

"Stop chunnering!

"Carol Chamberlin founded Miss Chamberlin's Finishing School For Young Ladies. In the curriculum was an advanced course in "How To Get Your Man," but despite this, she ended up a spinster.

"Adele Maillot, formerly Ada Morreale, the famous couturiere, has dropped the waistline to the knees, and raised the hemline to the thigh level.

"After the trust-busters had liquidated the A&P, they brought suit against Bob Browning. It seems that Mr. Browning monopolized the whole sehmoo industry whereby all cows and chickens were permanently put out of commission.

"Mimi Hutch was widowed at the tender age of 19. Her husband was killed by plunging headlong into the goalpost while defending the honor of good old Oshwash U. She has now gone in for teaching.

"Gosh, didn't anyone get married and live happily ever after?" questions Triton.

"Well, Lurena Ogilvie got married, but her problems were multiplied by the arrival of quintuplets.

"Ruth Linder, a mere medical secretary, accidently discovered a cure for remorse. As remorse is an affliction of the conscience, the cure is against the dictates of this realm.

"Here's Johnny Melone. If we accept him, we'll have a lot of trouble with the mermaids."

"Gee, wasn't anybody really good in that class?" whines Triton.

"Well, Miss Betsy J. Nichols has established herself as the Emily Post of their generation by writing a book entitled: 'The Proper Behavior While Observing Ducks.'

"P. Bevington Green, now a master in the art of wielding a typewriter, wrote the now notorious novel, "Salt Fish" which is currently banned in Weston."

"Well, wouldn't that jar you!" exclaimed Triton.

"That reminds me, Gloria Heaney has become world famous with the development of Aunt Agony's Hominy Grits.

"After he was almost forced to retire due to a crack-up, Joe Tebo established a rest home for aged automobiles in memory of his beloved flivver. Thanks to the devoted care of Dorothy Underhill, R.N., he pulled through to win the title of word's greatest auto jockey."

"Last but not least is Charlie Martin, a mortician, who advertised to bury anybody for $49.50. What a planter!

"I'm sorry, but we cannot accept any of them. Not one of them has met our rigid requirements."

"Hey, didn't you forget some one? How about Betty Damon and Mary Taylor?"

The old sea dog became livid with rage. "Throw them to the devil fish! They wrote this thing!"

CLASS WILL

WE, THE CLASS OF '50, being of good health and sound mind do by this document and herewith hand over and bequeath the following articles, privileges, and credits to the variously named heirs and assignees and to their heirs and dependents.

FOOTBALL

The great football team of Weston continued its undefeated season this year by beating every team by better than a 32 point per game average. We were the high scoring team of the year in all classes with Bob Toland rating fifth in the State as high scoring back.

We began the season's wins by defeating Millis 53-0. The Weston backs ran wild, with Dick McClure scoring three times, followed by Pete Green and Bob Toland scoring twice, and Dave Colpitts adding the final touches with another touchdown.

We handed Wilmington its first defeat since 1947 by defeating them 19-0. Pete Green and Bob Toland went twelve and four yards respectively for touchdowns in the first half, and John Melone caught a 25-yard pass from Dave Colpitts to complete the scoring.

The team had its one and only close game with St. Sebastian's, beating them 25-19. The game began with Pete Green going off right tackle 18 yards for a touchdown. Dave Colpitts to Johnny Melone was good for another one in the first quarter. This same combination scored in the second quarter. Leading 19-0 in the second half, the team fell apart. St. Sebastian's scored 3 touchdowns to our one. It was still a good game to get under our belts.

We continued to stay on the victory trail by defeating Hopkinton 34-6. Pete Green and Bob Toland were the big guns on the gridiron that day, with Dick McClure putting in his "two cents" worth.

The pressure was really on when we met Westwood because they were the only team in the previous year that handed us a tie, but we walked off the field with an 18-0 victory.

The big rival game between Weston and Wayland brought a lot of publicity. It was reported that Wayland was to upset our winning streak by an 18-0 victory. But we swamped Wayland 21-0 for a perfect season before 3,500 loyal sport fans. The first half went a little more slowly than the second, but the fans were supplied with thrills as Dave Colpitts sneaked through the Wayland defense, to go 86 yards in the first quarter. Early in the third quarter Bob Toland ran around right end from the five-yard line. The third touchdown came in the fourth quarter. Johnny Melone sneaked out on his own flat and received a pass from Dave Colpitts.

That ended a perfect season with nine wins and no losses. There are two reasons why we went undefeated. One is that the team had spirit. It was one of unity, and the other was the great coaching given us by Coach Proctor. Probably the one reason why we didn't have any casualities this year or last year was because of what Coach told us, "Be the hitter and you'll never get hurt."

Good luck to the great co-captains next year, Jerry Cobb and Bob Toland.

HOCKEY

The fall of 1949 was very successful, with a record of eleven wins and one tie, and the team was unscored upon. The first team defeated Wayland twice, by scores of 6-0 and 4-0. In two games with Cambridge School, the girls kept on rolling, winning both games by 3-0 scores. Waltham was the next victim, by a score of 4-0. In a game with Wellesley, the team won again, 5-0. Against a strong Concord team, Weston emerged victorious, 2-0. The last game of the season with Waltham was a heartbreaking one, ending in a scoreless tie. The second team also had a successful season, winning three games and tying three games, and it shows great promise for the future.

We offer our appreciation to our coach, Miss Howard, for guiding us through such a successful season, and to Betty Damon for her hard work as manager. To next year's team, we wish all the luck and success which has been ours.

BASKETBALL

This season the girls' basketball team showed great improvement over last year. The girls, under the able coaching of Miss Howard, won six games, tied one, and lost one. The victories were over Waltham, 29-11, in the first game of the season, followed by wins over Wayland, 40-27, and Cambridge School, 30-27. The girls played a tie game 15-15 with Concord. Newton's strong team edged out Weston's spirited team for the only defeat of the year 25-24. The girls then picked up where they left off, trouncing Wellesley, 21-9, and taking Wayland again 35-12. The season came to a close with a 38-9 win over Cambridge School. The second team had less success, winning four and losing four games. With our new gym and conditions more stable than they have been for several years, the girls are looking forward to next year with eagerness and enthusiasm.

BASKETBALL

Many people have been unaware of the handicaps the basketball team has been working under the past two years. With the team's undying spirit and teamwork it has sailed over the stormy seas remarkably well, and completed the '49-'50 season with a total of 13 wins and 8 losses. They really sailed smoothly when they defeated Wayland, Dual County League Champs by the score of 35-32.

Although this was the final game on our schedule we went to Townsend to enter the class "A" division of the Tournament. There, we trounced Peterboro, New Hampshire, 63 to 45. Rolling over our next opponent, Howe High, 72 to 38, we sailed on to the finals. In a close, nip-and-tuck game, Chelmsford High beat us 51 to 47. However, we were awarded a runner-up trophy and the additional honor of having three of our players nominated for the all-state team, Johnny Melone, Mylon Lyons and Bob Toland, who was chosen captain.

BASEBALL

The 1949 baseball team had a fairly successful season last Spring, winning six games and losing four. The wins were over Wayland, Ashland (2), Sudbury, Hopkinton, and Maynard, while the losses were to Newton Intermediates (2), Wayland, and Maynard.

The most important win was the first encounter with Wayland which we won 3 to 1. This was the first time we had beaten Wayland in baseball for at least four years.

The most heartbreaking game was the first game of the season, with Maynard. Going into the last of the ninth we had an 8 to 5 lead, but Maynard managed to score 5 runs and win 9 to 8 in the last fatal half-inning.

Albie Wangh, the captain, Doug Hammond, Dana Stewart, and Charlie Howell were the seniors on the squad, and although they were all infielders, Coach Proctor has several promising-looking boys coming up in the lower grades.

Seated (Left to Right): Bill Newell, Aubrey Jones, Richard Maitey, Roger Hanney, David Colpitts, (Captain); Robert Toland.
Standing: Coach Procter, Gerald Cobb, Mylon Lyons, John Melone, James Fraser.

CAPTAIN'S BALL

Few of us will ever forget May 13, 1949. After many weeks of careful planning the exciting day finally arrived. This was our "Captain's Ball" or "The Junior Promenade", the most important social event of our eleventh voyage.

We spent the day decorating the "Weston Golf Club Ball Room" with flowers and cleverly made foil butterflies for springlike effect. Everything was at last ready. The highlight of the evening came when Ken Reeve's orchestra chose Carol Chamberlin as queen. Her court included Merry Fowler, Joan Carter, Alice Rinehart, Shirley Cunningham, Diana Potter, and Marian Gage. The queen and the members of her court were crowned with tiaras of white carnations, by John Melone, President of the Junior class.

The class of 1950 hopes that this prom leaves unforgetable memories for all who attended.

Third Row: Barbara Goulson, Gloria Heaney, Betty Damon, Carol Dowd, Margery Mueller.

After six weeks of riotous but constant rehearsing, December 15th and 16th finally saw the curtain rise on "A DATE WITH JUDY", an hilarious comedy written by Aleen Leslie. Produced under the direction of Mr. Zorn, it was really a smash hit.

Starring in the play were Mimi Hutchinson as "Judy", Merry Fowler, Bob Brownell and Steve Howe. They were ably supported by Gloria Heaney, Carol Chamberlin, Charlie Martin, Joan Carter, Jerry Taylor, Barbara Goulson, Betty Damon, Margery Mueller, Everett Armstrong and Carol Dowd.

"A DATE WITH JUDY" was highly successful, both financially and artistically, and we congratulate the cast for their superb acting. This was due to the capable direction of Mr. Zorn, with the aid of the assistant directors, Dot Underhill and Audrey Reader. We also want to extend our thanks to all the teachers and students who were behind the scenes, making this production possible.

The student council has been very busy this year. A seventh and an eighth grade member have been added to the council.

The food canteen at the football games was sponsored by the council and netted a profit of $33.80.

The spirited pep rally before the Wayland game was a council sponsored activity which, it is hoped, will become an annual event.

The council sponsored the Sock Hops after the night basektball games. These were a success, financially as well as socially.

Student Council has a direct interest in town-to-town affiliation, lending the committee money and creating the plan for membership on the commitee.

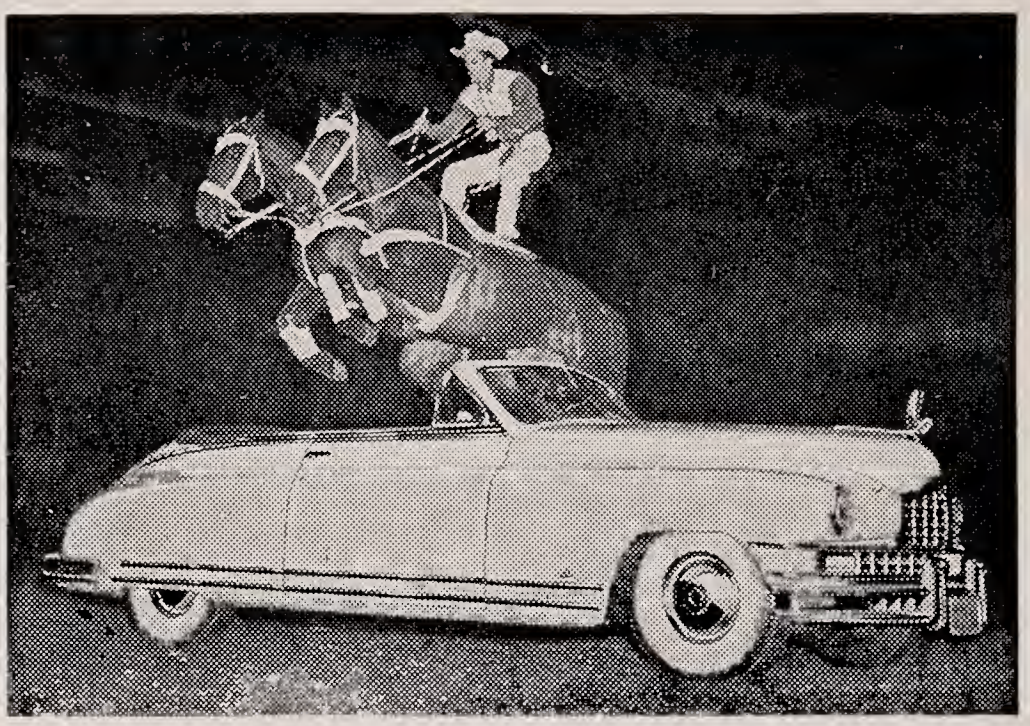
TWO HORSES OVER 160!



In the only breath-taking stunt of its kind, Lee Hendricks guides his two horses, the "Flying Twins," over a new 160-horsepower Packard convertible in a Roman-jump, thrilling rodeo audiences across the country. (Camera fans note: picture taken at 1/6,000 of a second by strobe light).
